The intern will take on various degrees of leadership in the following areas:

- A. Weekly Sunday School, and Youth Group.
- B. Vacation Bible School (morning children's camp + and afternoon youth service projects).
- C. Major Youth Trips: High School International Mission Trip and Middle School camp week.
- D. "Behind the scenes" planning and preparation for Sunday mornings, Vacation Bible School, High School Mission Trip, Middle School camp week, as well as any other summer events for families.
- E. Relationship-building with middle and high school youth.
- F. Communications with youth ministry volunteers, parents, and church staff.

The intern will participate in the following activities:

- A. Ministry staff meetings
- B. Leadership development with readings and discussions
- C. Regular personal spiritual practices (e.g., Bible reading, prayer, etc.).
- D. Other duties as assigned by the Ministry Director and/or negotiated according to special interests an intern might have (e.g., worship leadership for those preparing for ordained ministry).

Qualifications

- A. A maturing, personal relationship with Jesus Christ, showing continuing spiritual growth, moral and emotional strength, obedience to Biblical principles, and a demonstrated love for Jesus Christ and the church.
- B. Adherence to NPC's Youth and Children Leadership Covenant.
- C. Demonstrated enthusiasm for working with children and youth, with a willing spirit to serve and be used by God in the lives of children and youth.
- D. Demonstrated willingness to learn, to be mentored and taught, and to improve leadership skills.
- E. Demonstrated ability to plan and lead Bible studies, fellowship activities, and work projects.
- F. Good skills in listening and oral communication.
- G. Demonstrated ability to manage responsibilities with minimal supervision.
- H. Demonstrated ability to work creatively, cooperatively, and collegially with staff, parishioners, volunteers, and as a team member.
- I. A passport valid through at least December 2022, or one obtained prior to April 2022.
- J. Ability to pass appropriate pre-employment background checks to the Church's satisfaction.
- K. The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to perform successfully the essential functions of this position. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions. While performing the duties of this position, the employee is regularly required to sit, talk, and hear. The employee is frequently required to climb stairs and to reach with hands and arms and stoop, kneel, or crouch. The employee may sometimes be required to drive an automobile and is frequently required to stand, walk, and participate in sports or similar type physical activities. The employee is frequently required to carry documents or items from one building to another on the grounds of the Church.
