

There are many reasons to read the Bible. Although your goal is to read several chapters each day, the purpose for reading is to have a personal encounter with the living God. More than an encounter with words on a page, you are meeting a person... the person – Father, Son and Holy Spirit – whose story the Scriptures tell. This is not only God’s story, it is your story.

This reading plan will guide you through the entire Bible in one year. The 39 Old Testament books are interspersed with the 27 New Testament books. On Sundays you will read from Psalms – the prayer book of God’s people from ancient Israel to today.

Make the most of your daily reading:

Making Time. Try to keep a daily time when you read; choose a time when you will be unlikely to have distractions (having a consistent place helps). If this is not possible, do the best you can. It may be helpful to actually put the time into your calendar; writing “God” in a 15 minute time slot might make it more real.

Active Listening. Ask God to speak to you as you begin your time of reading. There may be a specific word for you for that day. Listen for God’s voice. You may want pray: “What do you have for me to learn, to do, to be this day?”

Responding. It may be helpful to keep a notebook and record what you hear; over time you may discern patterns. “Answer” God when you sense him speaking.

Keeping up. Try to read each day. If you fall behind, skip forward to the current day (you can go back later and catch up). You may feel “full” when you have read, and a little “empty” if you miss a day... hungry for God’s living word to you.

“The holy Scriptures are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” —2 TIMOTHY 3:15-17

“Do not be conformed any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.” —ROMANS
