CALL TO WORSHIP

Rev. Lisa Larsen

▲ OPENING SONG O Love that Will Not Let Me Go Indelible Grace

O Love that will not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee;

I give thee back the life I owe,

that in thine ocean depths its flow may richer, fuller be.

O light that followest all my way, I yield my flickering torch to thee;

My heart restores its borrowed ray, that in thy sunshine's blaze its day may brighter, fairer be.

O joy that seekest me through pain, I cannot close my heart to thee;

trace the rainbow through the rain, and feel the promise is not vain, that morn shall tearless be.

O cross that liftest up my head, I dare not ask to fly from thee;

I lay in dust, life's glory dead,

and from the ground there blossoms red life that shall endless be.

▲ PRAYER OF ADORATION

Rev. Larsen

CONFESSION OF SIN in unison

Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, you made heaven and earth, you rule supreme over all.

You are the true, the only God; there is no god above you.

It is your will that we should come to know you.

In your infinite mercy you have drawn near to us,

seeking to save the lost, yearning to restore all to right relationship with you.

Yet our sin stands as a barrier between us and you,

between your holiness and our deep need of forgiveness.

Cleanse us, we pray, that through the work of your Holy Spirit we may know you more fully, and worship you more truly.

Based on Irenaeus of Lyons

SILENT CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the good news of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

▲ CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

Nettleton

Glory be to God the Father, glory also to the Son, glory to the Holy Spirit,

Ever Three and ever One;

As it was in the beginning, now and evermore shall be;

Alleluia and thanksgiving, now and through eternity.

- ▲ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Apostles' Creed
 I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
 from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
 the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
 the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

- ▲ OFFERING SONG Reckless Love

Cory Asbury

Before I spoke a word, you were singing over me.

You have been so, so good to me.

Before I took a breath, you breathed your life in me.

You have been so, so kind to me.

O the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God.

O it chases me down, fights 'til I'm found, leaves the ninety-nine.

I couldn't earn it. I don't deserve it. Still, you give yourself away.

O the overwhelming, never-ending reckless, love of God.

When I was your foe, still your love fought for me.

You have been so, so good to me.

When I felt no worth, you paid it all for me.

You have been so, so kind to me. Chorus

- ▲ DOXOLOGY

Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below:

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PASTORAL PRAYER AND LORD'S PRAYER

Dr. Stoltzfus

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

▲ CLOSING SONG

Trust In You

Lauren Daigle

Letting go of every sin single dream, I lay each one down at your feet.

Every moment of my wondering never changes what you see.

I've tried to win this war, I confess. My hands are weary, I need your rest.

Mighty warrior, King of the fight, no matter what I face you're by my side.

When you don't move the mountains I'm needing you to move, when you don't part the waters I wish I could walk through,

when you don't give the answers as I cry out to you:

I will trust, I will trust, I will trust in you!

Truth is, you know what tomorrow brings. There's not a day ahead you have not seen.

So in all things be my life and breath. I want what you want, Lord, and nothing less! Chorus

You are my strength and comfort. You are my steady hand.

You are my firm foundation, the Rock on which I stand.

Your ways are always higher. Your plans are always good.

There's not a place where I'll go you've not already stood! Chorus

I will trust in you. (2x)

The God of Abraham Praise

Leoni

The God of Abraham praise, who reigns enthroned above,
The Ancient of eternal days, the God of love!
The Lord, the great I AM, by earth and heav'n confessed—
We bow before the Holy Name forever blest.

God by his name has sworn, on this we can depend,
And as on eagles' wings upborne to heav'n ascend.
There we shall see Christ's face; God's pow'r we shall adore,
And sing the wonders of God's grace forevermore.

God has eternal life implanted in the soul;
God's love shall be our strength and stay, while ages roll.
We praise you, living God! We praise your holy name;
The first, the last, beyond all thought, and still the same!

▲ PRAYER OF ADORATION

Heritage Brief

FREDERICK DOUGLASS ADDRESS AT OUR CHURCH IN 1866

On Tuesday evening, February 13, 1866, probably the best-known and most-significant event of the 19th Century to occur at our church (then the First Presbyterian Church of Washington) took place: a speech delivered from our pulpit by the renowned abolitionist, orator, and writer, Frederick Douglass. This charity fundraising-event was approved and endorsed by our long-time pastor Dr. Byron Sunderland and the Session at the request of a local charity which supported indigent black women and children who had been freed from slavery beginning with emancipation in the District of Columbia four years earlier. Because of Mr. Douglass's race, no other white organization or church in town was willing to allow him to speak in its facility, but Sunderland—long an outspoken abolitionist himself—and the elders at First Church approved the request as being fully appropriate for a Christian church.

On the very day that our church approved this use of the sanctuary for a week hence, a sizeable, highly publicized, and contentious meeting occurred at the White House between a Douglass-led group and President Andrew Johnson over the group's demand for black civil rights and equality before the law. This was immediately followed by strong, public criticism of the President by Douglass over the shoddy way the group had been treated. In response to Douglass's criticism, a significant number of church members and pew holders, including some lay leaders, proceeded to oppose Douglass's use of our pulpit, feeling that he had been rude to the President, even as many others remained supportive of his upcoming address. This internal argument grew quite heated and very public during the week leading up to the speech, but the event was held as scheduled and was a great success. A crowd of about 1,000, including many dignitaries, heard the two-hour address. (The subject: "The Assassination and Its Lessons"—on the killing of President Lincoln in the city just ten months earlier.)

Unfortunately, the internal conflict at the church became even more public after the event, drawing both praise and condemnation in newspapers as far away as San Francisco. Eventually about a third of the congregation left First Presbyterian because of this event of great charity held there. Years later Dr. Sunderland said he was amazed the church survived the occasion—though gradually it grew again. The strong Biblical position on racial generosity taken by Dr. Sunderland and the Session in 1866 continues at NPC today.
