CALL TO WORSHIP

Acts 17:24-28 (selected)

Rev. Todd Sutton

Chaplain, National Presbyterian School

The God who made the world and everything in it, is Lord of heaven and earth.
God gives to all mortals life and breath and all things, so that we can search for God and find him.
For God is not far from any of us. Indeed, "In him we live and move and have our being."
Let us lift up our hearts and voices, and together worship the Lord our God.

HYMN please sing!

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

St. Denio

1. Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.
2. Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
thy justice like mountains high soaring above
thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.
3. To all, life thou givest, to both great and small,
in all life thou livest, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish like leaves on the tree,
then wither and perish, but nought changeth thee.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Rev. Sutton

Our Father in heaven, thank you for leading us into your light.
We bless you for sending your Son our Savior to call us from death to life.
We acknowledge that we were dead in sin before his call,

but have been made alive in him.
Yet we confess that old habits are hard to break,
and that sin and sinful patterns remain in our lives.
Forgive us, O Lord. Guard us against this enemy within.
By the power of the Holy Spirit, help us to live daily, the new life Christ calls us to live.

SILENT CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the good news of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE please sing!

St. Denio

Thou reignest in glory, thou rulest in might,
thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight;
all praise we would render; O help us to see
'tis only the splendor of light hideth thee

SCRIPTURE

Acts 17:16-34

Mr. Malcolm Lester
Head, National Presbyterian School

¹⁶While Paul was waiting for his friends in Athens, he was deeply distressed to see that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷So he argued in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and also in the market-place every day with those who happened to be there.

¹⁸Also some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers debated with him. Some said, 'What does this babbler want to say?' Others said, 'He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign divinities.' (This was because he was telling the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.) ¹⁹So they took him and brought him to the Areopagus and asked him, 'May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?' ²⁰It sounds rather strange to us, so we would like to know what it means.'

²¹Now all the Athenians and the foreigners living there would spend their time in nothing but telling or hearing something new. ²²Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said,

'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. ²³For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.

²⁴The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, ²⁵nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things.

²⁶From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, ²⁷so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us.

²⁸For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said, "For we too are his offspring."²⁹Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. ³⁰While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, ³¹because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

³² When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some scoffed; but others said, 'We will hear you again about this.' ³³ At that point Paul left them. ³⁴ But some of them joined him and became believers, including Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S GRACE AND CALL

CHORAL RESPONSE

Engelberg

We know that Christ is raised and dies no more. Embraced by death he broke its fearful hold;
and our despair he turned to blazing joy: Alleluia. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostles' Creed

Dr. Quinn Fox

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING OF TITHES AND GIFTS AND COMMITMENTS

To Know Thee

Dr. Renwick
Hank Beebe

To know thee is the goal my heart has set, to know thee is its greatest prize;
To know thee, though I feel that we have met, on dark roads where sadness lies;
To know thee when the storms of life increase, and I see no sheltered landing;
To know thee in a time of quiet peace that passes my understanding;
To know thee is to come to know the truth, the truth that will set me free.
I know not where my growing faith will lead, or how I may react in word or deed;
I do know that I have a crying need to know thee.
To know thee is to know how I should pray, to know thee is a prayer complete.

To know thee is to finally find my way with thy bright lamp unto my feet.
To know thee is at first to know thy name, and speak it as one confessing;
And finding that the mention of thy name re-echoes as a blessing.
To know thee is to know my deepest self, to know thee uncovers me .
I know of fame and fortune far and wide, I know of the rewards that they provide.
I know that I would cast them all aside to know thee.

DOXOLOGY

Old Hundredth

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Rev. Katie Francis

HYMN please sing!

The Day of Resurrection

Lancashire

1. The day of resurrection! We tell it out abroad:
The Passover of gladness, the Passover of God.
From death to life eternal, from this world to the sky,
our Christ hath brought us over with hymns of victory.
2. Our hearts be pure from evil, that we may see aright
the Lord in rays eternal of resurrection light;
and, listening to his accents, may hear, so calm and plain,
his own "All hail!" and, hearing, may raise the victor strain.
3. Now let the heav'ns be joyful, let earth the song begin,
let the round world keep triumph, and all that is therein;
let all things seen and unseen their notes of gladness blend,
for Christ the Lord is risen, our joy that hath no end.
